GEORGE A. ANDREWS, JR.

STAT [redacted]

January 30, 1978

Dear Stan:

You were indeed generous to share so much of your precious holiday time with Jane and me in reporting on your work in your January 5 letter. I am going to take the liberty of sharing it with brothers Dave and John who share my interest in your career.

We are very much looking forward to having you and Pat with us on the sixth. We will invite Roy and Jane for the light supper before your Stanford talk. They always appreciate the chance to visit with you as do we.

When I observe the wild swings that the press takes at those like you who give so much of themselves for the public good, my mind turns for confort and assurance to the story of Nehemiah and his rebuilding of the wall of Jerusalem. The modern Sanballats and Tobiahs unload their accusations in the press to try to make you cease the work and descend to their plain of Ono (see Nehemiah 6), but the good work can not be stopped by such devices. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

We will see you in a week.

Sincerely,

George
